Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

I don't hold many things against my mother, but it is hard to not be mad about her not telling me about her cancer until it was too late. How she hid it for so long is still a mystery, especially when it moved to her bones. The hugs that she endured while her bones screamed from all five of her daughters must have hurt spectacularly, and yet, she had never told a one of us...except Mallory.
